Sarah Jessica Parker made an appearance to present Intercoiffure's Visionnaire Award to her long-time hairdresser and friend, Oribe, at the black-tie gala on October 16 in the Waldorf's Grand Ballroom. Oribe's lush, sensual stylings were in full flower at the black-tie dinner and dance on Sunday night with "The Last Time I Saw Paris."

Family Traditions

Sunday, October 16: Fall Atelier presenter Nicolas French opened his segment with a moving tribute to his father, Nicholas French, Sr., a former president of Intercoiffure England, and an influential artist who introduced new uses of texture and movement to postwar hairstyles. Family traditions notwithstanding, the 2010 NAHA Avant Garde winner then proceeded to step into the future with his fabulously dressed creations.

In Memory of a Great Educator

Sunday, October 16: ICA has established the Leo Passage Educator of the Year Award to acknowledge the contribution of those members who have made outstanding contributions to education. President Lois Christie presented the first Educator of the Year award to ICA member and Renaissance man Luis Alvarez.

Family Celebrities

New member Ted Gibson closed the Atelier's main stage programming with "Coiffure Dreams—We Need an Oscar for Hair." Part polemic, part performance art; his presentation was breathtaking proof of what it means to be an ICA-caliber artist.

The always elegant Gina Khan introduced "Decades of Hollywood," a sophisticated look at how hairstyles of the past evolve into today's trends. Colin Walsh of Matrix presented Gina, who has served as the Global Spokesperson for Logics, as well as Creative Director of the Hair color Council for Intercoiffure, with the Intercoiffure "Colorist of the Year" Award.

"BohoChic," the new Fall Trend Collection from ICA Fashion Director Vivienne Mackinder proved once again that no one combines fashion and beauty quite like Viv.

Color Council

Sunday, October 16: The Hair color Council, led by creative director Gina Khan and Jo Blackwell-Preston, and presented "Glamour Girls," a colorful tribute to Hollywood. Participating were Josie Sanchez, DopDop Salon; Joseph Cartagena, Genacelli Salon; Sherri Richards, Salon Buzz; Caitlin Neary, Noelle Salon & Spa; Rachel Leftwich; Gina Agosta Salon; Woody Michleb, Woody Michleb Hair; Jeanna Taylor, David & Mary Salon/Spa; Carole Purificado, Hair; and Katie Najac, L Salon & Color Group.

Cutting Council

Sunday, October 16: Creative directors Frank Gambuzza and Anthony Muti fielded their second annual Cutting Council team. Amy Michleb, Woody Michleb Hair; David Kinigson, The David K Space; and Katrina Torres, Visible Changes, presented "GLO – Graduation, Layers, Over directed." Look forward to the 2012Spring Symposium, where these talented hairdressers will demonstrate these styles in a hands-on class.
